

Health and Supportive Care Providers
Oversight Authority

Employers

Why encourage PSWs to apply

Being registered with HSCPOA benefits PSWs, their employers, and protects the public.

It highlights your commitment to quality care.

By encouraging PSWs to register and employing registered PSWs, you show your commitment to providing safe, quality, ethical care.

You know registered PSWs are committed to quality care.

Being registered is voluntary and shows PSWs genuinely care about protecting the public by adhering to HSCPOA's Code of Ethics.

It makes hiring easier.

HSCPOA's online Public Register lists Ontario PSWs who have met registration requirements, and includes any complaints or discipline history, which provides tremendous peace of mind.

It's good for PSWs' reputation.

It shows PSWs have met education or experience requirements, are of good character, and builds public trust.

It makes PSWs accountable.

Being registered means PSWs are accountable to HSCPOA for the supportive care services they provide.

Registered PSWs can use the HSCPOA Visual Mark.

This immediately identifies PSWs who have met HSCPOA's registration requirements.

For more information on registering with HSCPOA, visit: hscpoa.com

Health and Supportive Care Providers Oversight Authority

Quality care is the cornerstone of our healthcare system, and PSWs play a vital role. The Government of Ontario has established a framework to validate PSW credentials, training and education, provide accountability and transparency, and support the delivery of safe, quality, ethical care.

Visit: hscpoa.com